AUDIT REPORT.

Report on the audit of the accounts of the Andhra University for the year ending 31st March 1929.

1. Six accounts mentioned below are audited by the University as the Imperial Bank of India, Madras—

- A-1. General Account.
- II. Examination Account.
- III. Extension Fund Account.
- IV. Host Fello Account.
- B-1. Endowment Fund Account.
- II. Foundation Fund Account.

The transactions under each are detailed in the statements appended.

2. A-7. General Account.—The expenditure incurred on account of printing question papers and manuscript in connection with examinations, which was debited in the past to the examination account, was debited to Government grant during 1926-27 in respect of which the sanction of Government was not shown. A reference is in this connection invited to paragraph 4 of G.O. No. 224, Law and Education Department, dated 10th February 1928, and paragraph 4 of G.O. No. 1156, Law (Education), dated 4th June 1927. A sum of Rs. 8,425-8-0 is outstanding to the University in this account, as shown below. Early steps may be taken to clear this liability.

			Rs. A. P.
May 1928	..	..	671 8 0
June	..	..	1,675 8 0
July	..	..	125 0 0
August	..	..	502 8 0
September	..	..	346 8 0
October	..	..	452 8 0
January 1929	..	..	312 8 0
March	..	..	4,581 7 0
Total	..	..	8,425 8 0

3. (i) A sum of Rs. 2,705-15-6 as detailed below was paid towards outfit allowance, railway and steamer fare, etc., to two Fellows of the University, Messrs I. Rameshchandra Rao and T. A. Parashatham, who proceeded to London for research work in Botany and Experimental Physiology respectively. Their subsistence amounts were met out of the Endowment, Research Fellowship and Refere of Foreign Fellowship but the above payment was debited to the general account in support of which the sanction of Government was not shown.

			Rs. A. P.

July 1928	..	..	648 8 0
September	..	..	807 8 0
			45 8 0
T. A. Parashatham—

August	..	..	789 8 0
September	..	..	1 8 0

(ii) In Resolution No. 210 of 1927-28 of the Syndicate, it was resolved that Mr. D. Yachanta-maswamiyaiah should be deputed for three months to Hyderabad (Deccan) to collect for the University Zela, Vennam and Telugu manuscripts on a salary of Rs. 50 per annum plus a sanctioned travelling allowance of Rs. 16 per month and that the expenditure should be met out of the statement of Rs. 2,000 under A-1 General Account. Under-revenue items. A sum of Rs. 300 was paid on his account in November 1928 and January 1929. The debit of this amount to Government grant was not supported by any order of Government. It is desirable that the specific order of Government should be obtained as to the purposes for which Government grants may be utilized so as to see that the object is kept in view.

A sum of Rs. 500 was also paid in July 1928 to Messrs. Longdon, Green & Co., on account of printing 500 copies of Mr. Venkataswamy's work on local taxation. The debit of this special item of expenditure also to Government grant requires the approval of Government.

(iii) The following travelling allowances paid in October attending the Indian Historical Records Commission at Nagpur, the Indian Philosophical Congress at Madras and the Science Congress at Madras were incurred from the General Account without the specific sanction of Government—

			Rs. A. P.
Dec. 1927	..	Mr. M. Venkataswamy—	124 4 0
		Madras to Nagpur.
Dec.	..	Mr. K. Rameswami Srinivasan—	128 10 0
		Vizagapatnam to Nagpur.
Dec.	..	Mr. K. Srinivas Rao—	100 0 0
		Madras to Nagpur.
Jan. 1928	..	Mr. E. R. Paul—	75 0 0
		Madras to Madras.
Jan.	..	Mr. T. V. Subramanyam—	70 10 0
		Kolkata—Madras to Kolkata.
Jan.	..	Mr. M. Venkataswami—	115 14 0
		Madras to Madras.
Feb.	..	Mr. K. V. Subramanyam—	50 0 0
		Madras to Madras.

Special items of expenditure such as those printed out above may be brought into Part II of the Budget estimate so as to see that the grants are applied for the specific objects for which they were applied out of Government.

(iv) As pointed out in paragraph 8 and 9 of the Audit Report for 1927-28, the following items of expenditure do not appear to be charges which should be met out of the Government grant—vide also paragraph 6 of G.O. No. 194, Education, dated 23rd May 1928.

			Rs. A. P.
Dec. 1927	..	Rs. 1 8 0 Paid to the Master of the
		W. Boat, for carrying the boat to the college
July	..	Rs. 115 8 0 Out of permanent paper for diagrams.
Nov.	..	Rs. 1,000 0 0 Paid towards transportation of the Government
Jan. 1928	..	Rs. 100 0 0 Hire of motor car, fuel, oil and other charges for the Government.

4. An amount of Rs. 2,078 spent on the purchase of evidence value of the Vice-Chancellor in 1926-27 from Government grant remains also to be refunded to Government. The Government has in G.O. No. 2035, Law (Education), dated 7th May 1928, extended the time for repayment of the amount till the 31st March 1929.

5. An advance of Rs. 143 towards travelling allowance and other expenditure was paid in February 1928 to Gunter District Board Police for a tour to select places of archaeological and epigraphic interest. The amount was debited to general account. It appears to be a legitimate charge on endowment account.

6. Advance pending adjustment.—An advance of Rs. 300 made to Mr. K. Rameswami Srinivasan in 1927-28 to proceed to Bombay for purchasing materials required for a big-sized water colour and referred to in paragraph 1 of the Audit Report for 1927-28 remains to be accounted for up to date.

7. Savings under Government grant.—The total expenditure out of the Government Grant and the Special Government grants to the Research Scholar, during the year under report, amounted to Rs. 1,23,525-11-8 leaving as surplus balance of Rs. 1,24,875-8-5 under remaining grants and Rs. 61,500-7 under the special grant. This balance of grant on 1st April 1928 does not appear to have been taken in statement of the grant mentioned in G.O. No. 424, Education, dated 2nd April 1932, for the first quarter of 1929-30—vide paragraph 3 of G.O. No. 1155, Education, dated 26th June 1927.

3. Examination charges.—Bills relating to the remuneration paid to question paper writers were not made available for audit. It was stated that they will be kept on deposit till September 1937 examinations. The total of these bills amounted to Rs. 8,261-4-0—

		Rs.	A.	P.
December 1932	..	1,310	2	0
January 1934	..	8,430	4	0
February 1935	..	520	14	0
Total	..	10,260	4	0

4. For fund account.—The receipts and payments at the several Government treasuries in the Presidency from the transactions under this fund. The fee fund balance at the close of the year according to the cash book was Rs. 2,554-0-0. But according to the statements furnished by the Assistant-Comptroller the balance worked up to Rs. 3,257-1-0. The total receipts and charges during the year as seen from the cash book and Assistant-Comptroller's statement are detailed below:—

	Cash book.	Assistant-Comptroller's statement.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
Receipts	1,15,172 5 4	1,25,635 9 2
Charges	1,20,339 5 2	1,20,777 54 2

The difference remains to be reconciled, the detailed statement due from the Treasury Office having not been received from certain treasuries. The difference noted at the close of the year 1937-38 was adjusted except those items as shown below for which alteration remains were submitted by the Treasury Office consequent to the Assistant-Comptroller:—

Oct. 1937	..	plus	5	Trichingalur Sub-Treasury (Vandiyasalai district).
Feb. 1937	..	plus	4	Do
Dec. 1937	..	minus	2	Trich Sub-Treasury (Rajahmundry district).

10. The closing balances shown in the statements under all other funds agree with the respective Bank Pass Book balances after allowing for unmarked cheques.

11. General statements.—The total amount placed under attention in the year including previous balance was Rs. 51,463-9-11; the adjustments amounted to Rs. 3,664-13-5 and the balance at the close of the year was Rs. 17,835-15-4.

12. The gross receipts and charges for the year were Rs. 1,21,554-6-9 and Rs. 1,20,721-14-0 respectively.

COTTON CROP OF 1928-29—INTERMEDIATE MONTHLY REPORT.

In the Central districts and the South, the annual percentage of the 1928-29 crop was generally normal.

In the extreme, the condition of the early sown crop is fairly good. In the Deccan, the reason for sowing earlier or later, cotton is unimportant for want of timely rains. The main reason for sowing has not recurred in the other districts.

STANDARD CROP OF 1928—INTERMEDIATE MONTHLY REPORT.

The condition of the sugarcane crop is generally satisfactory except in parts of South Arcot where it has suffered to some extent from the attack of stem borer.

Madras, 12th September 1929.

THE INDIGO CROP OF 1928—FIRST REPORT.

[On an average of the five years ending 1927-28, the area under indigo in the Madras Presidency has represented 49 per cent of the total area under indigo in India.]

The area sown with indigo in the Madras Presidency up to the end of August 1929 is estimated at 24,600 acres against 25,500 acres on the corresponding date of last year. The increase is about 1 per cent. The increase in area is mainly in the Central and Coastal districts where the crops grown mainly as green manure. The area in the Deccan fell by 2,000 acres for want of timely sowing rains in July and August.

2. The crop has been affected by drought in all the important districts.

3. There is no information about the quantity actually sown, less dye as ploughed into was made as manure, though the crop is mostly used as green manure especially in the Central and Coastal districts. If the entire crop be converted into dye, the yield would work out to about 3,000 cwt. against 4,000 cwt. estimated at the corresponding date of last year.

4. Figures by districts are appended.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The necessity for amending the Madras Town-Planning Act, 1909, was felt within a few years after the Act was passed. Serious difficulties were experienced in working the Act in connection with the Madras Town-Planning Scheme. The scheme was prepared by the Madras City and Suburban Town-Planning Trust, which was constituted under the Act, and And, after the preliminary stages had been gone through, to be transferred to the Corporation of Madras for execution mainly for the reason that the Trust was not in a position to finance the scheme. The experience of the Madras Town-Planning Trust showed that the functioning of such a body was greatly handicapped for want of adequate financing provisions in the Act. There was no provision in the Act for equipping the Trust with necessary funds for executing any scheme prepared by it. The absence of any provision in the Act for transferring the execution of a scheme at any stage of its making or execution from the Trust to a local authority or from a local authority to a Trust also caused great inconveniences and trouble. On account of the difficulties about Section and the agency of execution, "The Malayan Eastern Section Town-Planning Scheme" proposed by the Trust had to be dropped and several other schemes of the Trust had to be held in abeyance. With a view to abridge these difficulties, which were actually experienced in connexion with the operations of the Malacca City and Suburban Town-Planning Trust Bill No. 5 of 1924 to amend the Malacca Town-Planning Act, 1920, was introduced by the Government.

While Bill No. 5 of 1924 was pending consideration before the Select Committee to which it had been referred by the Legislative Council, it was felt that the Malacca Town-Planning Act, 1920, stood in need of amendments in directions other than those dealt with by the Bill. As the Bill was primarily designed to remove the difficulties in connexion with the Malacca Town-Planning Scheme and as the scheme had been by that time transferred to the Corporation of Malacca, the preferable course seemed to be to abandon the Bill in favour of a comprehensive amending Bill and accordingly Bill No. 5 of 1924 was not proceeded with further.

The existing Act implies distinction between "town-planning" and "town improvement" which is unnecessary and caused inconvenience in practice. The Act provides for construction of houses for the poorer and working classes only but does not include comprehensive housing schemes within its scope. Notwithstanding the compulsory provision contained in section 5 of the Act, most of the municipal councils failing within its purview failed to submit schemes within the prescribed time. Inordinate delays occurred in the correspondence between one local body and another in regard to the preparation of schemes and the procedure relating to it was complicated. There is no provision in the Act that the execution of a scheme should commence immediately after it is sanctioned; nor is power reserved for making the execution of different parts of a scheme at different times. A scheme becomes final when sanctioned by the Local Government even before the arbitrator has completed his award. The Act imposes an inconvenient restriction by fixing a maximum period of six months from the date of the publication of a notification under section 14 for preferring claims for betterment contributions. Every decision of the arbitrator under the Act is final. There are some of the features which call for amendment in addition to the defects already adverted to which led to the introduction of Bill No. 5 of 1924. The object of the present Bill is to remedy these drawbacks and deficiencies.

The main changes introduced in the Act by this Bill are—

(1) the definition of "town-planning" so as to include "town improvement";

(2) provision that a scheme may provide for the carrying out of work which may be enforced or carried out by other responsible authorities specified therein;

(3) provision for a comprehensive "housing" programme (adequate for house building);

(4) the preparation of general town-planning schemes for all levels in all municipalities and in their vicinity without any population limit;

(5) simplification of procedure in the matter of preparing schemes and the prevention of delays in the correspondence between one local body and another in regard to it;

(6) the execution of executed schemes to be commenced forthwith and provision for execution of different parts of a scheme at different times;

(7) schemes not becoming final until the arbitrator has completed functioning;

(8) Government to have power to rescind or vary schemes two years after publication, etc.;

(9) provision of minimum period of time limited of maximum period for preparing scheme to betterment contribution;

(10) provision of a right of appeal to the Government from the decision of the arbitrator;

(11) compulsory contribution to funds from municipal cesses; and

(12) provision for transfer of scheme from one authority to another at any stage.

No special reference is necessary in this place to the other changes proposed in the Bill. The appended Notes on Clauses explain in detail the more important provisions of the Bill.

S. MUTHIAN MUDALIYAR

NOTES ON CLAUSES

Clause 2.—The new definition of 'Responsible authority' obviates the difficulty in the way of transferring for execution a scheme or a part thereof proposed by one local body to another.

The new definition of 'Town-planning' sweeps away the distinction between town-planning and town improvement which is both unnecessary and inconvenient in practice.

Clause 3.—Existing section 3 restricts town-planning operations in the first instance to areas in the course of development or likely to be developed. Built-up areas can be included only with the sanction of Local Government. As it is proposed to make 'town-planning' including 'town-improvement', it should be possible for a town-planning scheme to be made with respect to any kind of land, whether vacant, covered with trees, cultivated or built on. Section 3 is, therefore, proposed to be omitted altogether.

Clause 4.—Sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of this clause are necessitated by the inclusion of 'town-improvement.' The omission of the words 'for the poorer and working classes' in clauses (k) and (l) of section 4 which is proposed in sub-clause (iv) is with a view to enable a town-planning scheme to allot lands and to construct houses not only for the poorer and working classes but for others also.

Sub-clause (vii) enables the making of a provision in a town-planning scheme for financing a housing programme.

Clause 5.—The words proposed to be omitted are unnecessary.

Clause 6.—In view of the new definition of 'town-planning', the omission of section 5 of the Act and of the amendments of section 4, the retention of section 6 of the Act is unnecessary.

Clause 7.—Section 8 of the Act has been re-drafted as it is impracticable and imperfect. The population limit contained in the present section has been removed, the effect of which is that every municipal council will be obliged to submit a scheme. The need for ordering and planning the development of a town is greater in the case of the smaller than of the larger municipalities. The latest date for submission of schemes has been extended to 31st March 1939 to enable local bodies to take advantage of the census figures of 1931 and also to give them sufficient time to prepare schemes.

The most important change is that the scheme to be compulsorily submitted is called 'a General Town-Planning Scheme'. Under the existing section 8, within the time fixed, the municipal council should explore all possibilities regarding town-planning schemes and should submit a detailed scheme with respect to every area which could be improved or developed. This in practice is an almost impossible task. What is really required is that the general lines of development of the town as a whole should be settled by a general scheme which will fix the main lines of advance, leaving the intensive development of particular areas to detailed schemes to be submitted at leisure and as need arises. What exactly should be provided in a general town-planning scheme has been left to be prescribed by rules under the Act in addition to the provisions of section 4.

Sub-section (3) of proposed section 8 enables the Local Government to direct the submission of a General Town-Planning Scheme for any particular area by a local authority, etc. This is intended to provide for the town-planning of a region comprising the jurisdiction of various authorities where such a course is found to be necessary.

Clause 8 and 9.—These are intended to simplify the procedure as regards the preparation of schemes. The requirement that a municipal council should first intend to make a scheme, then publish the intention and finally pass a resolution to make a scheme has been done away with. The municipal council will, under the amendment, start with a resolution to make a scheme.

The proviso inserted by sub-clause (ii) of clause 8 is intended to prevent the inordinate delay that might occur in one local authority replying to another.

Clause 10.—It is unnecessary in the case of very small schemes to insist upon printing.

Clause 11.—It is necessary that a scheme required to be submitted by the local Government under section 12 should be prepared in draft and should be published for criticism like any other draft scheme before it is finally adopted by the municipal council for submission to Government. Section 12 as it stands is liable to the interpretation that it is unnecessary for a scheme prepared under this section to be published for criticism. The proposed amendment rectifies the defect and makes it clear that the scheme should be prepared and published for criticism. After such publication, the draft scheme will follow the same course as a draft scheme under section 11.

Clause 12—Sub-clause (1) (a).—There is no need to reinsert clause (d) of section 12 to clause (4) of section 4. The scheme should contain all the details under all the clauses of section 4 which are used.

Sub-clause (1) (b).—It is necessary to have an estimate of the cost of all details of the scheme and the estimate should not be confined to the net cost merely.

Sub-clause (1) (c).—This provides for details as to regulations for enforcing or carrying out the provisions of a scheme.

Sub-clause (2).—This provides for particulars of a housing scheme.

Sub-clause (3).—This is a penalty clause and will be useful in enforcing the detailed provisions of a scheme.

Clause 13—Sub-clause (i).—The words proposed to be added to sub-section (2) of section 14 are necessary in order to enable persons, not satisfied with the decision of a municipal council, to make representations to the Government before they sanction a scheme.

*Sub-clause (ii).—*The wording of the existing sub-section (5) of section 14 has been improved; and the amendment will enable the Government to sanction slight modifications of a scheme without referring the whole scheme back to the council. When the modifications are numerous or are important, provision is made to enable the Government to return the scheme to the council for reconsideration.

*Sub-clause (iii).—*The proposed new sub-section (4) provides for the procedure to be followed after a scheme is returned for reconsideration. Similar provisions are found in the United Provinces and the Punjab Acts.

The proposed new sub-section (8) declares that the scheme shall take effect from the date of the publication and provides for its execution at once. Power is also reserved for enabling the execution of different parts of a scheme at different times.

*Clause 14.—*The procedure for varying and revoking schemes has been made simpler. The Local Government is enabled to vary or revoke a sanctioned scheme any time after publication and consultation with the council or of persons affected in the scheme.

*Clause 15.—*The insertion of the words 'or other responsible authority' is intended to indicate that a scheme may provide that applications under section 17 need not necessarily be made to the authority making the scheme.

*Clause 16.—Sub-clause (i).—*The insertion of the words 'or other responsible authority' has the same end in view as in clause 15.

*Sub-clause (ii).—*This amendment is necessitated by the fact that the responsible authority may be different from the chairman of a Municipal Council. The method of recovering the expenses is left to be provided by rules.

*Clause 18.—*The proposed new section provides for cases where payment of compensation may be avoided by modifying the scheme. This adopts section 20 of the Housing, etc., Act, 1925, 13 and 14 Geo. 5, Chap. 24.

*Clause 19.—*Under the Act, the scheme for betterment has to be preferred before a date specified in a town-planning scheme and in most cases the use in value of properties will take place only subsequent to such date it is, therefore, necessary to indicate that the scheme could be made not only in respect of property which has increased in value but also in respect of property which is likely to increase in value.

It is unnecessary to fix a maximum limit of time in the case of claims for betterment while a minimum limit of time only is fixed in the case of claims for compensation under section 20. The amendment is in conformity with the corresponding provision in the English Act.

Clause 21.—The existing sections 27 and 28 have been combined. Appointment of an Arbitrator is made permissive instead of compulsory except when such appointment is required by the parties concerned. The amendment admits of specific duties being assigned to the Arbitrator according to circumstances necessitate in each case. Sub-clause (2) provides that in certain cases approval of the Local Government should be obtained.

Clause 22.—This refers to the powers and duties of the Arbitrator. Under sub-section (2) of proposed section 28, power is conferred on the Arbitrator to summon and enforce attendance of witnesses, to compel them to give evidence and to produce documents. Sub-section (3) of proposed section 23 provides for his awarding costs in suitable cases. These amendments have been found to be necessary.

Clause 23.—This provides for an appeal to the Local Government from a decision of the arbitrator on questions relating to claims for compensation and betterment. The decision on such questions may involve serious consequences to private parties and should not be declared to be final. The Local Government's decision, however, an appeal would be final and it is provided that the decision of the arbitrator, as modified by the Local Government in cases where appeals have been preferred, should be read as part of the scheme and be binding on all persons.

Clause 24.—Sub-clause (i) provides for the appointment of a town-planning committee to have charge either of town-planning in general or of only one scheme in particular. Sub-clause (ii) provides that the number of members on such a committee may exceed one-third of the strength with the sanction of the Local Government.

Clause 25.—The proposed section 33 relates to the constitution of joint town-planning committees. Provision is necessary to enable Local bodies to appoint suitable committees and to empower the Local Government to constitute such committees in places where diverse interests are to be represented. Sub-section (3) of proposed section 58 gives ample discretion to the Government in regard to the execution of schemes.

Clause 28.—Sub-clause (i) (c): clause (b) of section 44 is rendered unnecessary in view of the provisions of the proposed new section 48.

Sub-clause (i) (d):—This is intended to provide for rules in respect of matters newly introduced in the amendments proposed in the Bill.

Sub-clause (h):—This introduces a penalty clause for the enforcement of the provisions of the rules made by the Local Government.

Clause 29.—The experience of the Madras Town-Planning Trust shows that the functioning of such a body is greatly handicapped by the absence of adequate financing provisions in the Act. The idea apparently at the time the Act was framed was to make the necessary provision for such a purpose by means of rules under clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 54. It is, however, desirable to have a definite statutory provision for the purpose instead of leaving it to rules. In the absence of such a provision, it is impossible for Town-Planning Trusts to function effectively.

Clause 30.—The object is to make provision for the transfer of a scheme at any stage of its making or execution from one local authority to another, from a Trust to a local authority or from a local authority to a Trust and to avoid on such transfer the necessity of having to commence proceedings under the Act afresh. It also provides for the transfer along with the scheme all the assets and liabilities connected therewith and for the payment to the authority from whom the transfer is made of the expenses incurred by it on the schemes up to the date of the transfer.
